2. Heard. The report of the concerned jail authority shown to the Court inter-alia indicates that the petitioner's jail conduct is good. The only grievance is with regard to some apprehension in the mind of persons belonging to the complainant's side. This can be taken care of by the concerned jail authority, who might impose appropriate condition with regard to petitioner reporting at a particular police station and/or with regard to petitioner not entering in particular locality. In the facts of the case, therefore, following order is passed:-

The petitioner shall be enlarged on his due furlough on usual terms and conditions as also conditions that might be imposed by the jail authority. Rule made absolute accordingly.
